

Quebec

Plan	Currently Open	Near-Term	Longer- Term	Schools and Childcare	Other
Yes. Stage 1 has been announced, with subsequent stages to be announced gradually.	In addition to existing list of essential services  Stage 1 May 4: Commercial retail with street access, (outside of Greater Montreal)	May 11: Commercial retail with street access (excludes indoor shopping malls), limited capacity manufacturing, civil engineering and construction.  May 18: Commercial retail stores with street access (within Greater Montreal).  May 25: Lift restrictions on capacity restriction (employees per shift) for manufacturing.	Details of next stages TBD.	Primary schools and daycare will be open as of May 11 outside of Greater Montreal, and May 18 within Greater Montreal.  Secondary, CEGEP, college and university students will not return to the classroom until the Fall semester , earliest.  International student visas set to expire in April will be extended to December 31, 2020 .	Interprovincial travel restrictions to be lifted gradually starting May 4 .  Major cultural events have been cancelled, or postponed until further notice. The province issued a temporary ban on all events until August 31 .  Business openings are voluntary. Remote work encouraged where possible.  Workplace public health guidelines available here .

Ontario

Plan	Currently Open	Near-Term	Longer- Term	Schools and Childcare	Other
Yes. 3 phase plan, informed by adherence to public health criteria which will be assessed by chief medical officials in 2-4 week periods.	In addition to list of existing essential services. Stage 1  May 4: Select businesses and services to reopen including: essential construction, telecommunications and digital infrastructure, municipal projects, universities, schools, emergency childcare facilities, auto dealerships, golf courses, marinas, car wash, seasonal business such as lawn care, non urgent medical procedures.	Stage 2  Open more workplaces and outdoor spaces, allow some larger gatherings; might include some service industries and additional office and retail workplaces	Stage 3  Further relax restrictions on public gatherings, opening all workplaces.	Publicly funded schools will not allow classrooms to resume until at least May 31, with possibility of extension. Free childcare for children of essential workers listed here. Expanded emergency childcare facilities open.	Major cultural summer events cancelled. No plans for concerts or large sporting events. Remote work recommended where feasible. Ontario workplace guidelines available here

British Columbia

Plan	Currently Open	Near-term	Longer- term	Schools and Childcare	Notes
Not yet. Details to be announced the week of May 4.	In addition to list of existing essential services .			The Premier has stated that a regular return to classrooms is unlikely until September .	Major cultural summer events cancelled or postponed until further notice.  Unlike other provinces, not as many business sectors were mandated to close.

Saskatchewan

Plan	Currently Open	Near-Term	Longer- Term	Schools/Childcare	Notes
Yes. Gradual 5 stage plan.	In addition to the current list of essential services: Stage 1  May 4: Medical services, including dentistry, optometry, physical therapy, opticians, podiatry, occupational therapy and chiropractic treatment. Low-risk outdoor recreational activities, including fishing and boat launches.	Stage 2  May 19: Commercial retail and select personal care services.	Stages 3,4 and 5 have not yet been assigned a specific date. These stages will include: Stage 3  Re-opening restaurants, gyms, licensed establishments, childcare facilities; remaining personal care services, increasing the size of public and private gatherings to 15 people. Stage 4  Re-opening all indoor and outdoor recreation facilities and increasing public gatherings to 30 people. Stage 5  Lifting long-term restrictions.	No dates were announced for the reopening of schools, although Premier Moe indicated it is unlikely for schools to reopen for the remainder of this school year, ending in June. Childcare facilities to re-open in stage 3, date TBD.	Public gatherings remain at a maximum of 10 people during stages 1 and 2. This will increase to 15 people at stage 3, and 30 people at stage 4. Workplace public health guidelines available here. Business openings are voluntary. Remote work encouraged where possible.

Manitoba

Plan	Currently Open	Near-Term	Longer- Term	Schools and Childcare	Other
Yes. Phased plan. The first phase announced with subsequent phases to follow, precise dates and some details for next stages TBD.	In addition to existing list of essential services. Stage 1 May 4: Non-urgent surgery and diagnostics, health care services. Retail businesses including restaurants. Museums, libraries and outdoor recreation.	Stage 2 June 1 (at the earliest) Expanding public gatherings. Restaurants - dine-in services restored. Film production. Non-contact children's sports.	The final phase(s) will involve lifting remaining restrictions, including larger gatherings and events.	Schools will remain closed until at least June 1.	Each phase will require a period of a minimum three to four weeks to observe the results of the previous phase, and to make determinations about acceptable next steps.

New Brunswick

Plan	Currently Open	Near-Term	Longer- Term	Schools and Childcare	Other
Yes. Phased plan to be specified gradually. Currently in Stage 1.	Has not released a list of essential businesses. To help you determine whether a business must remain closed please see the current Mandatory Order outlining these details. Stage 1  April 24: Parks and beaches, golf courses, universities and colleges can open parts of their campuses in certain circumstances, outdoor religious services, two metres apart. Fishing and hunting permitted. Socializing with one other household also permitted.	The next stages have not been assigned a specific date, although could begin in 2-4 weeks after April 24. They will include: Stage 2  Offices, restaurants, ATV trails, campground elective surgeries, daycare, retail. Stage 3  Close contact services including gyms, dental care, chiropractor, personal care and churches.	TBD: Large gatherings, sports, bars.	Childcare facilities to reopen during Stage 2 (likely in May). Primary and secondary schools closed for the remainder of the school year. Universities and colleges can open parts of their campuses for students in certain circumstances.	New Brunswick residents are being urged to avoid all non-essential travel, outside, and within the province. Large gatherings such as festivals and concerts are prohibited through December 31 but that is subject to change. Workplace public health guidelines available here

Newfoundland and Labrador

Plan	Currently Open	Near-Term	Longer- Term	Schools and Childcare	Other
Yes. Alert levels. Timeline will be informed by ongoing public health indicators.	Existing essential services.	Alert level 4  May 11: Some medical procedure, low-risk activities such as golf, hunting and fishing will be permitted and low-risk businesses, including garden centres and professional services like law firms, will be able to reopen. Daycare services will be expanded. Funeral services (max 10 people). Alert level 3  Private health clinics like optometry and dentistry as well as medium-risk businesses like clothing stores and hair salons.	Alert level 2  Some small gatherings will be permitted, and businesses such as performance spaces and gyms. Alert level 1  Some measures will remain in place until an effective treatment or vaccine is available, including prohibition of mass gatherings.	Daycare services will be expanded to support workers returning to their jobs during the alert level 4. All in-class instruction is postponed until further notice.	Currently Newfoundland allows “doubling households”, which allows families or individuals to meet with one other household. Workplace guidelines are available here.

Nova Scotia

Plan	Currently Open	Near-term	Longer- term	Schools and Childcare	Other
Not yet. Details to be announced in coming days.	In addition to list of existing essential services. Municipal and provincial parks, trails, fishing, gardening and lawn care services, use of cottages, marinas, golf driving ranges	Provincial and private campgrounds, golf courses.		All public schools in NS will remain closed until May 19, with the possibility of extension. Daycare facilities will also remain closed until May 19, with the possibility of extension.

Alberta

Plan	Currently Open	Near-Term	Longer- Term	Schools and Childcare	Notes
Yes, 3 stage gradual plan to begin on May 14. Dates of subsequent stages to be determined.	In addition to list of existing essential services. Boat launch access in select provincial parks. Golf courses can open, with restrictions to keep clubhouses and pro shops closed. Select non-urgent surgeries. Dental and other regulated health-care services must adhere to new health guidelines.	Stage 1 May 14: Retail shops and farmers markets. Cafés, restaurants, bars at 50% capacity. More surgeries and dental procedures, some personal care services including hair salons. Museums, art galleries Stage 2 Potential opening of K-12 schools, libraries. More personal care services.	Stage 3 Arts and culture festivals, concerts and major sporting events Nightclubs, gyms, pools, recreation. Industry conferences.	May 14: Daycare and summer camps with occupancy restrictions. Primary schools remain closed although Premier Kenney indicated it is possible classrooms may resume. Post-secondary institutions will continue online course delivery, in-person or blend, depending on the restrictions determined at each phase.	Gatherings of more than 15 people not permitted at stage 1. Remote work recommended where feasible. Non-essential travel outside the province not recommended. Guidance for workplaces available here.

Prince Edward Island

Plan	Currently Open	Near-term	Longer- term	Schools and Childcare	Notes
Yes. 4 phase plan gradually lifted over 3 week long assessments.	In addition to list of essential services. Phase 1 Golf courses, driving ranges and shooting ranges. Recreational fishing, including inland and tidal water fisheries and all recreational shellfish. Marinas and yacht clubs.	Phase 2 May 22: Retail outlets with restrictions, greenhouses childcare, remaining construction, cleaning and restoration services, select personal care including hair salons, repair and extermination services, car washes, bottle depots.	Phase 3 June 12 (earliest): Outdoor team sports, arenas, recreational facilities, museums, libraries, yoga and fitness, community centers. Phase 4 TBD Larger gatherings, visiting elderly in care homes.	Schools to remain closed until at least May 11, possible extension to be announced this week. Childcare facilities to open in phase 2, as of May 22.	In phase 1, no more than 5 people allowed in a group. In phase 2, no more than 5 people indoors and 10 people outdoors. In phase 3, no more than 15 people indoors and 20 people outdoors.